

SIBELIUS ONE

Guidelines and Hints for Contributors

Contributions to Sibelius One – news, photos, articles, reviews, ideas, are always welcome from members and non-members alike. Please submit your item to gm@sibeliusone.com

If you are a new contributor, please include a brief paragraph about yourself and a profile photo.

Suggested lengths:

- for a news item: between 100 and 300 words
- for a review: approx. 1,000 words
- for an article: approx. 2,000 words

Languages:

Sibelius One is an English-language website. If you have an article in another language that you would like to submit, please contact gm@sibeliusone.com – we may be able to help.

Links:

If you would like to include specific links to other websites, please indicate these clearly in your submission.

Originality:

If your item includes substantial or recognizable quotes from other authors' work, please identify the source material either within the article or as a footnote.

Thank you and we look forward to receiving your contributions!

The small print...

By making a submission the author grants Sibelius One the non-exclusive right to publish any submitted material online and/or in printed form.

The author warrants that he/she is the legitimate copyright holder of all submitted material, including photographs, music examples and illustrations, and indemnifies Sibelius One against any claims from third parties arising from their use by Sibelius One.

Articles will be published and/or displayed at the discretion of Sibelius One, and may be edited for publication.